I have heard the counsel for the parties and gone through the contents of the FIR.

This order be read in continuation of the earlier order dated August 29, 2006 passed by this Court.

Counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner, who is mother-in-law of the deceased, has been living separately from her son. Counsel further contends that during the investigation, the petitioner was found to have been living separately at the time of the alleged occurrence.

Counsel for the petitioner contends that in terms of the aforesaid interim order, the petitioner has joined the investigation. This fact has not been disputed by the State counsel and he further states that in this case challan has already been filed and the petitioner is no more required for further investigation.

In view of the above and for the reasons stated in the interim
